

SKYGACK—A VISITOR FROM THE PLANET MARS

Alas! T. R.'s Ego Got a Wallop.

When Teddy Roosevelt was governor of New York he visited Cornell University. He was entertained at one of the fraternity houses. As he was about to leave one of his staff said:

"Governor, the boys have the foundation of a capital library and I think they'd appreciate a copy of your 'Rough Riders'."

"All right, boys," said the governor heartily, "I'll be glad to send you a copy with my compliments. The book would be but a small return for your hospitality."

Whereupon one of the students broke in excitedly:

"That's so, governor. I've read it."

A woman who can make a speech may get a vote, but a woman who can make good shortcake will get a voter.

Dates, figs and prunes are all highly nutritious as well as useful in effect.
